the domain owner
as Client in following text

and

KiberNet Kft.
Tatra u. 12/A, 1136 Budapest, Hungary
VAT: HU12120181
as Provider in following text

Client is giving all legal rights to Provider to act in it's behalf (proxy) in all administrative and law matters regarding the registration of .hu Internet domains of Hungary, in accordance with the DOMAIN REGISTRATION RULES AND PROCEDURES (see www.domain.hu) of the Council of Hungarian Internet Providers (Registry) and also in accordance with Hungarian law.

While acting as Admin-C Provider mainly relays messages and requests from the Registry – or any other requesting party – to the domain owner. Provider does not exercise the rights of Admin-C. By providing Admin-C services, Provider is obliged to act in the domain owner's best interest and give it's best effort in all administrative matters. If there is a need for hiring professionals of some kind (solicitors, trademark experts, etc.) in accordance with a domain problem, additional charges might apply. Provider will inform Client in timely fashion if such need arise and get Client's explicit permission before hiring those professionals.

Contested domain applications – after domain application submission but before domain delegation – might need special procedures determined by the Registry. Provider either charge the expense of these procedures on Client or delete the domain application, according to Client's decision.

Provider can refuse domain maintenance if the usage of the domain is supposedly against Hungarian law, so Provider should not be forced to violate Hungarian law by providing domain maintenance. If such problems arise Provider must inform Client in timely fashion. Provider is not obliged to regularly check legality of domain usage.

This agreement is to be considered active when Client trusts Provider with the domain registration services along with the Admin-C duties. This agreement can be terminated at any time by any party. In case of Provider's termination Provider provides additional 30 days service allowing Client to find an alternative solution.

Any disputes arising from this agreement shall be settled primarily through negotiation, in case of failure parties subject themselves to the jurisdiction of the Pest Central District Court (Pesti Központi Kerületi Bíróság) or Municipal Court (Fővárosi Bíróság).

Hungarian law applies in matters not regulated by this agreement.
